

POSTPARTUM HEMORRHAGE AWARENESS MONTH BLOOD DRIVE

Excessive bleeding (postpartum hemorrhage) is the leading complication in childbirth. Receiving a blood transfusion can save a birthing person's life and help them recover faster to be able to feed, care for, and bond with their baby. Give the gift of life.

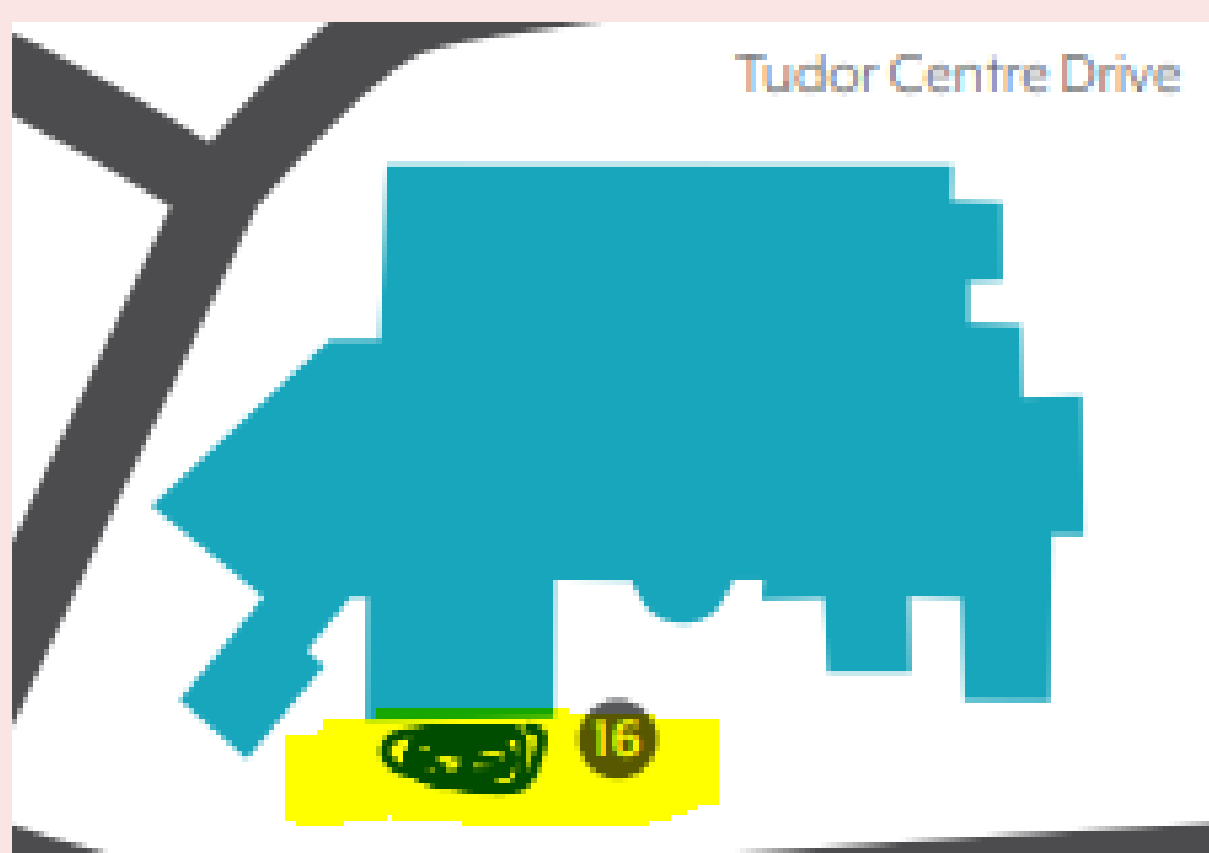

WHEN?

September 29, 2023

9:00am-4:00pm

WHERE?

In the parking lot in front of Quayana House and Hospital Administration